Your implementation journey

At Tugela People, we understand that every organisation is unique. That's why we tailor our implementation approach to your specific needs and goals, ensuring our solutions drive your success.

Our unique blend of HR and Payroll expertise, technical skills, and proven methodology, which is outlined below, ensures accurate and seamless system integration. With a dedicated project manager, we keep your implementation on budget and on schedule, maximising your ROI.

We provide real-time online project tracking for continuous input. Our flexible approach ensures efficient project execution, whether managed on-site or remotely. Our consultants guide you through a smooth transition to go live, ensuring a successful system launch.

Your ongoing journey to success

After completing your Sage People Payroll implementation, we will continue to assist you through a range of support and training services tailored to help you maximise your investment. Whether you require minimal assistance or comprehensive support, we're here to help you every step of the way, ensuring your continued success with Sage People Payroll.

Ongoing support services

Whether you are managing your payroll in-house and require ad-hoc technical administration support or a comprehensive bureau service, we offer a flexible approach to managing all your organisation's payroll needs.

Training

To complement Sage's online e-learning support, we provide tailored training solutions to enhance your team's capabilities and optimise the potential of your Sage People Payroll system. Our bespoke training packages are flexible and cost-effective, designed to meet your specific needs and can be delivered on-site, online, or at a third-party training centre. We offer both one-to-one and group training to ensure the best learning outcomes for your team. Training costs will depend on your requirements and will be detailed in a customised training proposal.

Managed Service support

For flexible technical administration support, we recommend that our clients take advantage of support bundles. These bundles enable you to reach out for support when you need it, with the reassurance that our technical consultant knows your system. Whether you need us to provide support on day-to-day administration, simple fixes, or complex system set-up, our experienced team of consultants will help you take full advantage of Sage People Payroll's capabilities.

Payroll Bureau

We offer a comprehensive payroll bureau service utilising the Sage People Payroll system to manage your payroll on your behalf. From precise payroll calculations to administering employee benefits, managing pension contributions, and delivering detailed reporting, we handle every aspect of payroll administration with precision and efficiency.

Our services offer affordable and transparent pricing, coupled with exceptional customer support. They allow you to streamline your payroll and HR functions and concentrate on your core business activities.
